Table for 8 Returning Soon!

Host Recruitment Underway

We are excited to announce the return of Table for 8. Table for 8 is an informal dinner for 8 people in the home of a St. John's parishioner. The goal of the event is to share a meal and conversation. No need to plan an elaborate party, this is simply a meal and time to get to know each other. It is a one time event, not an ongoing group. Our Fall events were a great success and we hope you can join the fun. Online registration for participants will be released soon. You will simply choose from the available dates and your host will contact you with details for your dinner.

We are currently seeking hosts for our upcoming dinners. Contact Tate Cantrell, tatecantrell1222@gmail.com, for more info and details.

The Reading
Isaiah 58: 6–9a

A reading from the prophet Isaiah:

Is not this the fast that I choose: to loose the bonds of injustice, to undo the thongs of the yoke, to let the oppressed go free, and to break every yoke? Is it not to share your bread with the hungry, and bring the homeless poor into your house; when you see the naked, to cover them, and not to hide yourself from your own kin? Then your light shall break forth like the dawn, and your healing shall spring up quickly; your vindicator shall go before you, the glory of the LORD shall be your rear guard. Then you shall call, and the LORD will answer; you shall cry for help, and he will say, Here I am.

Reader:       The Word of the Lord.
People:       THANKS BE TO GOD.

Psalm 112: 1-9

8:00: The Psalm is read in unison by ALL.

10:30: The Psalm is sung by the choir.

| 1 Hallelujah!Happy are they who fear the Lord *and have great delightin his commandments!      | 6 For they will never be shaken; *the righteous will be keptin everlasting remembrance.                                      |
| 2 Their descendants will be mighty in the land; *the generation of the uprightwill be blessed.     | 7 They will not be afraid of any evil rumors; *their heart is right;they put their trust in the Lord.                        |
| 3 Wealth and riches will be in their house, *and their righteousness will last for ever.               | 8 Their heart is established and will not shrink, *until they see their desireupon their enemies.                            |
| 4 Light shines in the darkness for the upright; *the righteous are merciful andfull of compassion. | 9 They have given freely to the poor, *and their righteousness stands fast for ever;they will hold up their head with honor. |
| 5 It is good for them to be generous in lending *and to manage their affairs with justice.             |  |

The Gospel
Matthew 5: 13-20

A reading from the Gospel according to Matthew:

People: GLORY BE TO THEE, O LORD.

People: GLORY TO YOU, LORD CHRIST.

Jesus said, "You are the salt of the earth; but if salt has lost its taste, how can its saltiness be restored? It is no longer good for anything, but is thrown out and trampled under foot. You are the light of the world. A city built on a hill cannot be hid. No one after lighting a lamp puts it under the bushel basket, but on the lampshade, and it gives light to all in the house. In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father in heaven. Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets; I have come not to abolish but to fulfill. For truly I tell you, until heaven and earth pass away, not one letter, not one stroke of a letter, will pass from the law until all is accomplished. Therefore, whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches others to do the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does them and teaches them will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven."

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: PRAISE BE TO THEE, O CHRIST.

Reader: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: PRAISE TO YOU, LORD CHRIST.

Offertory anthem: Brightest and best (Malcolm Archer (b.1952))

Brightest and best of the stars of the morning,
dawn on our darkness and lend us thine aid.
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining,
low lies his head with the beasts of the stall.
Angels adore him in slumber reclining,
Maker and Monarch and Savior of all.

Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
odors of Edom and off'rings divine,
gems of the mountain and pearls of the ocean,
myrrh from the forest or gold from the mine?

Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
vainly with gifts would his favor secure.
Richer by far is the heart's adoration,
dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

Poem by Reginald Heber (1783–1826)

Communion anthem: Eternal light, shine in my heart (David Ashley White (b.1944))

Eternal light, shine in my heart;
eternal hope, lift up my eyes:
eternal power, be my support;
eternal wisdom, make me wise.
Eternal life, raise me from death;
eternal brightness, make me see:
eternal Spirit, give me breath;
eternal Saviour, come to me:
Until by your most costly grace,
invited by your holy word,
at last I come before your face
to know you, my eternal God.

Poem by Christopher Idle, after Alcuin of York
