Today is Confirmation Sunday

The Rt. Rev. Brian Cole will be with us this morning to administer the sacrament of Confirmation. Confirmation is defined in the prayer book as a mature public affirmation of faith and commitment to the responsibilities of Baptism.
Traditionally, it is seen as the sacramental rite of joining the Episcopal Church and the larger Anglican Communion.

The Reading

Romans 14: 1-12

Welcome those who are weak in faith, but not for the purpose of quarreling over opinions. Some believe in eating anything, while the weak eat only vegetables. Those who eat must not despise those who abstain, and those who abstain must not pass judgment on those who eat; for God has welcomed them. Who are you to pass judgment on servants of another? It is before their own lord that they stand or fall. And they will be upheld, for the Lord is able to make them stand. Some judge one day to be better than another, while others judge all days to be alike. Let all be fully convinced in their own minds. Those who observe the day, observe it in honor of the Lord. Also those who eat, eat in honor of the Lord, since they give thanks to God; while those who abstain, abstain in honor of the Lord and give thanks to God. We do not live to ourselves, and we do not die to ourselves. If we live, we live to the Lord, and if we die, we die to the Lord; so then, whether we live or whether we die, we are the Lord's. For to this end Christ died and lived again, so that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living. Why do you pass judgment on your brother or sister? Or you, why do you despise your brother or sister? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of God. For it is written,

"As I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me,
and every tongue shall give praise to God."

So then, each of us will be accountable to God.

| 1 Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and all that is within me,
bless his holy Name. | 10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness. |
| 2 Bless the LORD, O my soul, *
and forget not all his benefits. | 11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is his mercy great upon those who fear him. |
| 8 The LORD is full of compassion and mercy, * slow to anger and of great kindness. | 12 As far as the east is from the west, *
so far has he removed our sins from us. |
| 9 He will not always ac-cuse us, *
nor will he keep his anger for ever. | 13 As a father cares for his children, *
so does the LORD care for those who fear him. |

The Gospel
Matthew 18: 21–35

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Matthew:

People: GLORY BE TO THEE, O LORD.

People: GLORY TO YOU, LORD CHRIST.

Peter came and said to Jesus, “Lord, if another member of the church sins against me, how often should I forgive? As many as seven times?” Jesus said to him, “Not seven times, but, I tell you, seventy-seven times. For this reason the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who wished to settle accounts with his slaves. When he began the reckoning, one who owed him ten thousand talents was brought to him; and, as he could not pay, his lord ordered him to be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, and payment to be made. So the slave fell on his knees before him, saying, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you everything.’ And out of pity for him, the lord of that slave released him and forgave him the debt. But that same slave, as he went out, came upon one of his fellow slaves who owed him a hundred denarii; and seizing him by the throat, he said, ‘Pay what you owe.’ Then his fellow slave fell down and pleaded with him, ‘Have patience with me, and I will pay you.’ But he refused; then he went and threw him into prison until he would pay the debt. When his fellow slaves saw what had happened, they were greatly distressed, and they went and reported to their lord all that had taken place. Then his lord summoned him and said to him, ‘You wicked slave! I forgave you all that debt because you pleaded with me. Should you not have had mercy on your fellow slave, as I had mercy on you?’ And in anger his lord handed him over to be tortured until he would pay his entire debt. So my heavenly Father will also do to every one of you, if you do not forgive your brother or sister from your heart.”

Offertory anthem: Love divine, all loves excelling (Mack Wilberg)

Love divine, all loves excelling, Joy of Heaven to Earth come down, fix in us thy humble dwelling, all thy faithful mercies crown; Jesus, thou art all compassion, pure,
unbounded love thou art; visit us with thy salvation,
enter every trembling heart.

Breathe, O breathe thy loving Spirit into every troubled breast; let us all in thee inherit, let us find thy promised rest; take away our love of sinning; Alpha and Omega be;
end of faith as its beginning, set our hearts at liberty.

Come, Almighty to deliver; let us all thy grace receive;
suddenly return, and never more thy temples leave. Thee
we would be always blessing, serve thee as thy host above, pray, and praise thee without ceasing,
glory in thy perfect love.

Finish, then, thy new creation; pure and spotless let us be;
let us see thy great salvation perfectly restored in thee;
changed from glory into glory till in Heav'n we take our place, till we cast our crowns before thee,
lost in wonder, love, and praise!

Communion anthem: Bless the Lord, O my soul
(Sam Batt Owens)

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me,
bless his holy Name.

He forgives all our sins and heals our infirmities;
Bless the Lord, O my soul.

As a father cares for his children,
so does the Lord care for those who love him.
Bless the Lord, O my soul.

Our days are like the grass;
we flourish like a flower of the field.
Bless the Lord, O my soul.
When the wind goes over it, it is gone.

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me,
bless his holy Name.

Surely it is God who saves me
